

Short Title: GSC Uniform Public Expression Protection Act

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ENACT THE UNIFORM PUBLIC EXPRESSION PROTECTION ACT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. UNIFORM PUBLIC EXPRESSION PROTECTION ACT

[Staff Note: Redlining in this Part represents changes to the Uniform Act, not current law. GSC staff also made non-redlined changes to conform to the General Statutes numbering system and convention of capitalizing only the first word in a G.S. section catchline.]

SECTION 1. Chapter 1 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new article to read:

"Article 54.

"Uniform Public Expression Protection Act.

"§ 1-671. Short title.

This ~~act~~ Article may be cited as the Uniform Public Expression Protection Act.

[Staff Note: Chuck Ivey suggests that the Uniform Act instead be codified in the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure as Article 3A of Chapter 1A of the General Statutes, consisting of Rules 16.1 through 16.17.]

"§ 1-672. Scope.

(a) In this ~~section:~~ section, the following definitions apply:

[Staff Note: Chuck Ivey suggests combining the first two sections as follows: Section 1 of the Act would be codified as Rule 16.1(a), and Section 2(a) through (c) would be codified as Rule 16.1(a1) through (c), respectively.

Mr. Ivey also suggests that certain provisions appearing in Official Comments 3, 6, 11, and 12 to Section 2 of the Act should be codified as Rule 16.2, to appear as follows:

(a) This Article is only applicable to civil actions. It has no applicability in criminal proceedings.

(b) As used in Rule 16.1, and throughout this Article unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following rules shall apply:

(1) The term "communication" should be construed broadly to include any expressive conduct that implicates sections 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, or 18 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution, or otherwise implicates the First Amendment of the United States Constitution.

Not later than ~~60~~ 60 days after a party is served with a ~~complaint~~ ~~petition~~, complaint, crossclaim, counterclaim, third-party claim, or other pleading that asserts a ~~cause of action~~ cause of action to which this ~~act~~ Article applies, or at a later time on a showing of good cause, the party may file a special motion for expedited relief to ~~dismiss~~ ~~strike~~ dismiss the ~~cause of action~~ cause of action or part of the ~~cause of action~~. cause of action.

This defense may be made by motion like other defenses listed in G.S. 1A-1, Rule 12(b).

[Notwithstanding G.S. 1A-1, Rule 12(g) and (h), however, this motion does not waive any other defense, objection, or motion; conversely, a party's failure to consolidate this motion with another motion or pleading does not waive a party's right to file this motion.]

[Notwithstanding G.S. 1A-1, Rule 12(g) and (h), however, all of the following apply:

(1) A special motion for expedited relief does not waive any other defense, objection, or motion.

(2) A party's failure to consolidate a special motion for expedited relief with another motion or pleading does not waive a party's right to file the motion.]

[Legislative Note: A state should use the term "complaint" or "petition", or both, to describe any procedural means by which a cause of action may be asserted.

A state should title its motion one to "dismiss" or "strike" in accordance with its procedures and customs. The state also should substitute its term for the term "[dismiss] [strike]" in Section 7(a).

A state may need to amend its statutes or rules of civil procedure to prevent a motion under this section from being considered a first pleading or motion that waives a defense or precludes the filing of another pleading or motion.]

[Staff Note: North Carolina Rule of Civil Procedure 12 provides:

Rule 12. Defenses and objections; when and how presented; by pleading or motion; motion for judgment on pleading.

(a) (1) When Presented. – A defendant shall serve his answer within 30 days after service of the summons and complaint upon him. A party served with a pleading stating a crossclaim against him shall serve an answer thereto within 30 days after service upon him. The plaintiff shall serve his reply to a counterclaim in the answer within 30 days after service of the answer or, if a reply is ordered by the court, within 30 days after service of the order, unless the order otherwise directs. Service of a motion permitted under this rule alters these periods of time as follows, unless a different time is fixed by order of the court:

- a. The responsive pleading shall be served within 20 days after notice of the court's action in ruling on the motion or postponing its disposition until the trial on the merits;
- b. If the court grants a motion for a more definite statement, the responsive pleading shall be served within 20 days after service of the more definite statement.

(2) Cases Removed to United States District Court. – Upon the filing in a district court of the United States of a petition for the removal of a civil action or proceeding from a court in this State and the filing of a copy of the petition in the State court, the State court shall proceed no further therein unless and until the case is remanded. If it shall be finally determined in the United States courts that the action or proceeding was not removable or was improperly removed, or for other reason should be remanded, and a final order is entered remanding the action or proceeding to the State court, the defendant or defendants, or any other party who would have been permitted or required to file a pleading had the proceedings to remove not been instituted, shall have 30 days after the filing in such State court of a certified copy of the order of remand to file motions and to answer or otherwise plead.

(b) How Presented. – Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, crossclaim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted in the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion:

- (1) Lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter,
- (2) Lack of jurisdiction over the person,
- (3) Improper venue or division,
- (4) Insufficiency of process,
- (5) Insufficiency of service of process,
- (6) Failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted,
- (7) Failure to join a necessary party.

A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. The consequences of failure to make such a motion shall be as provided in sections (g) and (h). No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. Obtaining an extension of time within which to answer or otherwise plead shall not constitute a waiver of any defense herein set forth. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered (6), to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Rule 56, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Rule 56.

(c) Motion for judgment on the pleadings. – After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings. If, on a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in Rule 56, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by Rule 56.

(d) Preliminary hearings. – The defenses specifically enumerated (1) through (7) in section (b) of this rule, whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for judgment on the pleadings mentioned in section (c) of this rule shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the judge orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.

(e) Motion for more definite statement. – If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, he may move for a more definite statement before interposing his responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the judge is not obeyed within 20 days after notice of the order or within such other time as the judge may fix, the judge may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such orders as he deems just.

(f) Motion to strike. – Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules, upon motion made by a party within 30 days after the service of the pleading upon him or upon the judge's own initiative at any time, the judge may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, irrelevant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter.

(g) Consolidation of defenses in motion. – A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it any other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this rule but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to him which this rule permits to be raised by motion, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in section (h)(2) hereof on any of the grounds there stated.

(h) Waiver or preservation of certain defenses. –

(1) A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, improper venue, insufficiency of process, or insufficiency of service of process is waived (i) if omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in section (g), or (ii) if it is neither made by motion under this rule nor included in a responsive pleading or an amendment thereof permitted by Rule 15(a) to be made as a matter of course.

(2) A defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, a defense of failure to join a necessary party, and an objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under Rule 7(a), or by motion for judgment on the pleadings, or at the trial on the merits.

(3) Whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the court shall dismiss the action.]

"§ 1-674. Stay.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (d) through ~~(g)~~, (g) of this section, on the filing of a motion under ~~Section 3: G.S. 1-673~~, G.S. 1-673, all of the following apply:

(e) A motion under ~~Section 10~~ G.S. 1-680 for costs, attorney's fees, and expenses is not subject to a stay under this section.

(f) A stay under this section does not affect a party's ability voluntarily to ~~dismiss~~ dismiss a ~~cause of action~~ cause of action or part of a ~~cause of action~~ cause of action or move to ~~sever~~ sever a ~~cause of action~~ cause of action.

(g) During a stay under this section, the court for good cause may hear and rule ~~on~~ on the following motions:

(2) ~~a~~ A motion seeking a special or preliminary injunction to protect against an imminent threat to public health or safety.
